Our author this term is Ian Whybrow. All the children at Christmas were given a book from Santa by this author. Can you find yours and read it again? What is the title? Who is the main character?

You could visit the library and find more books by this author!

PE will be taking place this term on Tuesday or Wednesday depending each week on the Hall Timetable.

Please make sure that all jewellery is removed before coming into school and long hair is tied back. Thank you
