

HAZEL LEYS
ACADEMY

Pupil of the Week

Year6- Arseine
for always
working so hard and
coming in to school
everyday with a smile on his face.

Year 5-Joshua
for always
trying his best
at everything
he does and working hard.

Year 4-Kayleigh for having a positive attitude to learning and always trying her best.

Year3- Elysa for consistently achieving fabulous leader board scores and trying everything with a positive attitude.

Year 2-Peyton
for a fantastic
level of engagement in our live lessons
and
assignments.
She always asks
her adult for help
if she is uncertain
about an answer
and she isn't afraid of challenging
herself.

Year 1-Deacon
for joining in
well on TEAMS
and producing
some lovely
work.

Reception-

Mason for joining in with the home school learning activities as well as doing lots of other things with his family like kite flying, riding his bike, going for walks and baking too! Well done Mason!

Nursery-Amber for amazing effort
in everything
she does at home and
school and for doing it with a smile!

Flicker is as funny as a lion doing a dance.
 Lots of girls will come out
 His nostrils when he gets scared Love flicker because he is the opposite of smart.
 Can you imagine having a pet with
 surey poo?
 Kids may slip when they see him
 Elephants are big but Flicker is bigger Right now he is ~~blowing~~ blowing

Homework 29/6/2020
 It was a hot day Mum made some sandwiches and Dad made some tea. I put it in a flask. Sam got some tins of coke. Tom put the cakes in a big
 tin. Lee put the apples in a bag. They all get off in the car. They drove to the woods at Beamish. They ate their picnic and then they went for a walk in the woods.

What a fantastic week we have all had at...

By Sabrina
 The snow was a blanket covering the whole world
 The wind rustled in the night sky against the gusty trees
 As he lurked his weapons over his broad shoulders
 His bags are as heavy as boulders

By Xavier
 The snow was a white ghost among the shadow sky,
 The moon's eye covered his path,
 When he stepped gently onto ground,
 They couldn't hear a sound,
 The highwayman, he came up to the old inn door.
 Did you hear from him?
 Now or ever...

By Viktorija
 So, have you ever heard of the highwayman?
 Because his only crime that he had been told to you before
 And if you don't listen closely, he will walk up to your door
 We will be on the children and adults you I name,
 But to the area that someone can hear you soon,
 They will see him for the man who got people killed,
 Maybe you will see... By Mason

By Sabrina
 The snow was a white blanket covering the whole world
 The wind rustled in the night sky against the gusty trees
 As he lurked his weapons over his broad shoulders
 His bags are as heavy as boulders

By Xavier
 The snow was a white ghost among the shadow sky,
 The moon's eye covered his path,
 When he stepped gently onto ground,
 They couldn't hear a sound,
 The highwayman, he came up to the old inn door.
 Did you hear from him?
 Now or ever...

By Viktorija
 So, have you ever heard of the highwayman?
 Because his only crime that he had been told to you before
 And if you don't listen closely, he will walk up to your door
 We will be on the children and adults you I name,
 But to the area that someone can hear you soon,
 They will see him for the man who got people killed,
 Maybe you will see... By Mason

